Math 2568

Attempt before Monday, September 23, 2013

Jim Fowler

The listed homework is a lower bound on the number of problems you should be doing: doing more homework is a good idea.

Midterm on Friday, September 20, 2013

Remember to study for the upcoming midterm.

The two boxed problems have solutions in the back

Even if you don't do all the suggested problems (though you should!), the two boxed problems really should be done since you can check your answers quickly in the back of the textbook.
